

2025 Academic Ranking of World Universities

צילום: רועי חרמוני

Investing in Impact: University of Haifa Ranked Among Global Leaders in the 2025 Shanghai Ranking

The University of Haifa has been recognized among the world's leading universities in the 2025 Shanghai Ranking by Subject, affirming its growing global influence in research, education and public leadership.

Out of approximately 1,800 universities worldwide, the University of Haifa achieved top-tier rankings in fields with direct societal impact: Education, Public Administration, Psychology, Law, Sociology and Political Science. The University ranked first in Israel in Education, and is placed among the world's top 150 institutions in Psychology, Law and Sociology, as well as among the top 200 globally in Political Science.

These achievements reflect the University of Haifa's strategic commitment to academic excellence, interdisciplinary research and real world impact. By advancing knowledge in fields that shape education systems, public policy, mental health, governance, and social cohesion, the University continues to translate academic leadership into meaningful societal outcomes, positioning it as a leading force in education, governance, and social innovation in Israel and worldwide.